Course is designed for Attorneys, Financial Professionals, and Mental Health Professionals.
In the training you will:

- Be introduced to the theories, practices, and skills needed to begin collaborative practice.
- Learn the roles each profession (Attorney, Financial Specialist and Mental Health Professional) plays in the process and what their functions are.
- See demonstrations of how the professionals come together as a team to support the clients in dissolving their marriage and restructuring their family.
- Meet with the other attendees to discuss how to implement Collaborative Practice.
- Have the opportunity to role play case scenarios to practice your new skills.
- Meet the minimum training standards set by the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals.

Applications pending for CEU's for MFT, LPCC, LEP and/or LCSW attendees. CLEU's for Attorneys.

Please join us for an art therapy interactive program on Thursday afternoon.
